Watch Out For The Bat! Three Days at Large

Great Mystery Movie Will Be Shown at Torrance Theatre

First National presents an exceptionally strong cast in support of Milton Sills in "The Unguarded Hour," which comes to the Torrance Theatre Thursday and Friday. Sills has the starring role, with Doris Kenyon as the featured feminine player. Heading the supporting players is Claude King, who gained his first American fame by his work on the legitimate stage as Rudolph Solomon in Ethel Barrymore's success, "De classe." King is an Englishman and has played with the finest of the British stage stars. Recently he had one of the principal roles in "The Making of O'Malley," which comes to the Torrance Theatre Saturday.

Anna Q. Nilsson, Lewis Stone and Robert Cain did some of the most exciting scenes in the picture on the main deck of the big steamer. Stone and Cain staged a fistful battle which had members of the crew thinking for a few minutes that a real fight was taking place, and Cain topped off the excitement by plunging into the ice-cold waters of the harbor from the steamer's deck.

Watch out for "The Bat"! The most diabolical criminal of all time will be at large in Torrance Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. You'll find him at the Torrance Theatre. He's the title character in the greatest of all mystery photoplays. Roland West's all-star feature, adapted from the Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood melodrama, has a hundred gasps, laughs and surprises for every episode. Complications have been added to baffle even the hundreds of thousands who saw the spoken drama. A powerful love theme runs through the story of murders, robberies, haunted houses, and a terror reign launched by a seemingly superhuman law-breaker. The action when "The Bat's" real identity is disclosed takes audiences completely by surprise and stuns the "old you's."

"The New Commandment," a society melodrama, comes to the Torrance Theatre next Wednesday. It is Robert T. Kane's initial production under his own banner for First National release. "The New Commandment" is a screen adaptation of Col. Frederick

Nash and Ajax Sales in Record Month of April

"The past month," says E. H. McCarty, general sales manager of the Nash Motors Company and Ajax Motors Company, "showed a gain in Nash business of 70.9 per cent over April of a year ago. This figure includes sales of the Nash-built Ajax. Exclusive of Ajax the percentage of increase mounts up to a full 35 per cent. When it is remembered that April of 1925 was at the time the greatest month in all Nash history, this phenomenon enlarged volume of business takes on still greater significance. April also marked the twentieth consecutive month, with a single exception, that Nash business has shown an increase over the corresponding months of the previous year. The one month when this record was not maintained was November, when output was arbitrarily halted to bring out the 'enclosed car' motor."

"Not only has April set a new record for the Nash Motors Company, but latest reports from our 51 distributing centers throughout the United States show that the past six weeks were the greatest consecutive six weeks of bona fide retail deliveries since the company was founded. It is interesting to note also that these same six weeks witnessed the largest consecutive volume of bona fide used car sales in these 51 cities that have ever been recorded."

Edward Kasal of Redondo boulevard and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kasal of San Pedro were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kasal of Lennox.

Will Erect 20 Homes at Palos Verdes Estates

Building Activity Brisk on Hills Overlooking This District

Twenty houses are either under construction at Palos Verdes Estates or are projected for the immediate future, and sales of residence sites last week again reached a new high record, according to Jay Lawyer, general manager of the seaside project. Palos Verdes is gaining momentum every month, he declares, and this third year of the development will be by far the greatest in the history of the project.

"Sales of home-sites over the last week made April another big month," Mr. Lawyer states, "and set a new record for a two-day period. Our medium-priced home-sites are now getting scarce, and we are obliged to concentrate on the finer, larger estates. As a matter of fact, there is a great demand for this class of property, especially among easterners who are coming to California this year."

The following persons are now building or completing plans to build at Palos Verdes Estates: R. M. Breeden of Los Angeles, George Kincaid of Hermosa Beach, S. F. Bergstrom of Redondo Beach, George T. Moran of Los Angeles, Joseph E. Calloway of Palos Verdes, James Woolsey of Los Angeles, Sam Arey of Redondo Beach, Ben McCourt of Redondo Beach, Hammond Sadler of Brookline (Mass.), Don Gilmore of Long Beach, C. W. Metcalf of Redondo Beach, R. R. Struthers of Los Angeles, Edwin Heisman of Hermosa Beach, W. M. Sutherland of St. Louis, Carol Johnson of Redondo Beach, Don Lawyer of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Fannie E. W. Wilkins of St. Louis.

With the exception of a four-family apartment house being built by James Woolsey, all the structures are single family dwellings. Many of them are costing in excess of $15,000, and a few approach the $50,000 class. Nearly all are being built in the Malaga Cove section, either in the fine old eucalyptus grove or on the bluffs directly above the ocean.
